

Part 2: Karmic Threads

Pages 63–107

KEEPING IN TOUCH

- Anything noteworthy happen since the last meeting?
- Did anyone try out the perspective that how you react to circumstances is what matters most?

1. Cycles of Karma

What greets us every morning at our doorstep? (p. 65)

Based on the cycles of karma, what is important about a child's first twelve years and why? (p. 66)

What type of events can you think of that demonstrate the intricacy and precision of karma? (pp. 66–67)

2. Group Karma

How does karma work like a magnet? (pp. 67–68)

Why must we respond to calamity with compassion? (pp. 68–69)

What are some examples of positive and negative bonds of group karma? (pp. 69–70)

3. Second Chances

How is the story of Thomas Becket and Henry II a dramatic example of karmic opportunity? (pp. 71–74)

4. Life Between Lives

From near-death accounts, what are some experiences people might have between lifetimes? (pp. 75–79)

5. Family Ties

Why do people come together as a family? (pp. 79–80)

No matter what family you were born into, what lesson comes across loud and clear in reincarnation studies? (p. 81)

Besides karmic debt, why might family members reincarnate together? (pp. 82–84)

6. Karma and Adoption

Why can adoption be a part of someone's life plan? (p. 85)

What is the most tragic consequence of abortion? (pp. 86–87)

7. Soul Mates and Twin Flames

What does a union between soul mates look like? (pp. 88–89)

What are twin flames? (p. 89)

How did twin flames become separated and what did that cause? (pp. 89–93)

Why would you want to be cautious about seeking your twin flame? (pp. 93–94)

No matter what kind of close relationship we have, all love is really love for our twin flame and love for God. All love moves us closer to reunion with our twin flame and with God . . . Rather than turning our gaze here and there in search of “the one,” we can begin walking the road to our greatest love starting right where we are.

8. Karmic Partners

What marks a karmic marriage? (pp. 95–96)

What is the unguent that heals the wounds of karmic relationships? (p. 97)

9. A Prisoner of Love

What attracts us to a person in the first place? (p. 98)

When “the honeymoon is over,” what keeps us going and giving in a relationship? (pp. 98–99)

What’s the pattern of a karmic relationship before it dissolves? (pp. 99–102)

Why is it important to stay in a relationship until the debt is paid? (pp. 102–03)

How will you know when it’s over? (p. 104)

10. Not All Relationships Are Healthy

What is important to remember when you meet someone and feel attracted yet ill at ease? (pp. 105–06)

What is important to remember when you are considering marriage? (pp. 106-07)

